NEWCOMERS WELCOME

This coming Saturday, May 10th, The "Welcome 2 Shaunavon and Area Committee" is having a special community coffee and chat at Jack's Cafe from 2pm to 3:30pm to welcome newcomers to the area. Local information packets will be handed out to make yourself familiar with what is here for newcomers. There will also be representatives from the Eastend Chamber of Commerce on hand.

COOP OPENING ON SATURDAYS

Since the con-store closed, people have had to rely on the card-lock on weekends to get gas. But, there's great news for Eastend, the coop gas station will be expanding their hours to Saturdays on May 17th. Just in time for Summer travelling!

NEW TELESCOPE AT WILKINSON

When I attended the National Astronomy Day open house at Wilkinson Observatory this past weekend, I learned of the fancy new telescope that was just acquired for the Observatory. It's modern interface will allow for connections with computer laptops, tablets and smart phones. This is going to be huge if we are able to download images from the telescope directly to our phones! The new device is not up and running yet, as some track repairs on the observatory are still pending.

Jack's Cafe in Globe And Mail

Congratulations to Noel at Jack's Cafe for being featured in the April 23rd edition of the Globe and Mail newspaper. It's a good article highlighting how important to our community Noel and his family are. I hope Noel and Edna and the extended family know how much they are appreciated and loved by Eastend. You can read the article at this link:

(you can google "jack's cafe , globe and mail" and find it fast)

Misery Mountain Boys Concert Review

We have photos inside from the concert held on Saturday. Whether it was your style of music or not(jazzy and bluesy, I would describe it as). the Boys really knocked it out of the park. They threw an impressive gig with just the four of them, and each player had their chance to jam for us to great applause. The smooth and flawless performance had the crowd whooping and clapping up a storm. I even bought their vinyl LP, "Somebody Stole My Peaches"!
