NEWCOMERS WERE WELCOME

We had a fantastic, enthusiastic group of new comers to Eastend join us at Jack's Cafe for the come and go coffee organized by "Welcome 2 Shaunavon and Area" set up by Brenda Waldron from Shaunavon. Brenda is a big believer in positive thinking making positive outcomes, and when she contacted the town of Eastend and Chamber of Commerce she was welcomed with open arms. And so on Saturday the coffee and home-made cookies were enjoyed by a crowd size of 20-30 people, some of whom made a quick introduction and speech. Welcome bags were handed out for free to the new comers containing information about Shaunavon and Eastend including businesses and lists of members of Chamber of Commerce. Mayor Howard was there and made a welcome from the Town of Eastend. We have some photos inside.

COOP OPENING THIS SATURDAY

This weekend will be the first with our new COOP gas station open on Saturday. Don't forget to fill up for the long weekend!

EASTEND FIRE DEPARTMENT BBQ

Members of the Eastend Fire Department were dishing out delicious bbq hot dogs at Raptor Rounds Mini Golf and Greenhouse on Saturday; with donations going towards protective gear. The fire department took the opportunity to hand out fire safety literature as well as putting on an educational display of their protective gear and equipment for hands-on teaching.

BIKE SAFETY RODEO TODAY

This morning from 9:30am-12 noon the parking lot on Oak Avenue will be a free bicycle safety rodeo for kids aged 4-12. They will learn about how to ride safely in Eastend, and practical safety tips useful everywhere. BBQ lunch is provided by the Eastend Economic Development committee.
