MS WALK RAISES OVER $10,000

Last Sunday, Donovan Henrion of Shaunavon led a modest crowd of walkers at the annual MS Walk from the Eastend rink around the town and back to the rink. The weather was gorgeous on Sunday, and after speeches from former organizer Bonnie Gleim and Donovan, the Excellerators Car Club started off the walk in style. Despite the post-covid drop in participants, the modest group of walkers pledge an amazing ten thousand and four hundred dollars this year for the Society. We have some photos inside. If you missed your chance to donate to the walk, you can enter this address in your web browser to donate: <https://rb.gy/mkqkw>

EASTEND LIGHT HORSE SHOW SATURDAY

This Saturday, it's the Light Horse show all day at the Eastend rodeo grounds. If you're new to town or have visitors who might like to catch a piece of genuine Western life, mosey on over the black bridge at the edge of town and head up the hill towards the T.rex Discovery Centre museum. Take the road off to the right that's just before the parking lot of the T.rex Centre and you'll find your way to the rodeo grounds. There's always hot food and cold drinks there, too. Bring a hat or umbrella to keep the Sun away.

GIL AND WIL CONCERT/ALBUM RELEASE PARTY

This Saturday at the Activity Centre there will be a concert to coincide with album release party from a duo you may remember from last year's big Flat Folk Fest; Gil and Wil. They sounded great last year, Tickets are only $15 !

Enhancing Our Town's Beauty: Planter Relocation & Reconditioning for 2025

Exciting News from Communities in Bloom

We're thrilled to announce that our Communities in Bloom group has expanded (or branched off) its efforts by forming a dedicated Tree Committee. Thanks to generous donations of funds collected at the The Blue Dog (April, 2023) and your recyclable bottle donations, we've purchased six trees to enhance the Eastend Swimming Pool area.

Three Amur Chokecherries (Prunus Maackii) and three Gladiator Rosybloom Crabapple (Malus 'Durleo') were purchased from Colleen at the Frontier Flower Patch and were planted today - a perfect, cool, and wet day—ideal for giving these trees a strong start.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who contributed to this initiative. We're eagerly anticipating the vibrant blooms and beauty they'll bring next spring! Special thanks to the Eastend Swimming Pool Committee for their invaluable help in planting these additions.

Together, we're growing a greener, more vibrant community!

Thank you to Roxie Binkley

For her time, guidance, and dedication to the Communities in Bloom Committee.

Roxie has chosen to step down from our committee and we are going to miss her.

Your passion has truly helped our town blossom.

We're so grateful for everything you've done and hope to see you at future work parties!

With heartfelt thanks,
CIB Committee Members
