COMMUNITY YARD SALE PHOTOS

We're so jam-packed this week that I'm posting my photos from this past weekend's Community Yard Sale on the front page. I promised myself that while scouting for photo ops, I wouldn't impulse shop. I ended up spending all the cash in my wallet. I found some super deals, so I have no regrets! The Alleykatz crew flipped burgers and hot dogs in the cold wind to raise funds. The Eastend Library also put on its usual book and media sale.

EASTEND LIGHT HORSE SHOW PHOTOS

This week we have a photo essay insert from the recent Light Horse Show courtesy of Evelyn Sankey. Thank you so much for the photos, Evelyn.

Eastend Library Film Screening Sunday

This Sunday at 1:30pm, the Eastend library will be showing the documentary film, Singing Back the Buffalo by award-winning Cree filmmaker Tasha Hubbard from the Peepeekisis First Nation in Saskatchewan.

EASTEND GRAD THIS WEEK

This Friday evening at the Eastend Memorial Hall is graduation for the Class of 2025. Next week we'll feature our Grad issue with the messages from family to grads.

Minister of Health Visits Eastend

This week we have an excellent report written by Rosa at the Town of Eastend office on the recent visit by Minister Carr and MLA Steele to Eastend. We're reposting her work here from her original Meta post.

The Communities in Bloom Volunteers worked tirelessly the last week of May rejuvenating soil in the planters, purchasing flowers, and planting all the town's hanging pots and planters. A huge thank you to our dedicated core group – you did an outstanding job! Thank you also to the extra volunteers (Jim Hawes and Ken Humphrey) who came out to lend a hand, and a special thank you to Larry Verpy for the essential use of your tractor. We can't wait to see the beautiful results!

MLA Doug Steele and Minister of Health Lori Carr Visit Eastend by Rosa V.

On Friday, May 30, elected officials from the Town of Eastend, the RM of Arlington No. 79, and the RM of White Valley No. 49 welcomed Lori Carr, Minister of Mental Health and Addictions, Seniors, and Rural and Remote Health, along with MLA Doug Steele, for an important visit focused on the healthcare and emergency needs of the region. The day included a tour of the Wolf Willow Health Centre (WWHC) and the Southwest Emergency Response Centre - which houses ambulance services, fire trucks, and emergency response vehicles - followed by a meeting at the Municipal Office.

Mayor Alan Howard thanked Minister Carr for taking the time to engage directly with local leaders and listen to the concerns of rural Saskatchewan communities.

During the tour, the WWHC manager and Saskatchewan Health Authority (SHA) staff guided the Minister through the facility, highlighting both the strengths and the ongoing needs of rural healthcare. Minister Carr also viewed artwork created by residents, a testament to the success of the Centre's community programming. With support from the three municipalities and Sask Lotteries, WWHC offers both an art program and a yoga class, which promote mental and physical well-being among residents and the wider community.

The municipal meeting provided an opportunity for local leadership to advocate for sustainable healthcare solutions to ensure that Eastend and surrounding communities receive the support they need to thrive. Also in attendance were the Chief Administrative Officers of all three municipalities and Eastend's Economic Development Officer.
